COUNCIL NAMES OFFICERS FOR ELECTION

Everything Now Ready for the Voters for Next Tuesday's Municipal Contest.

The city council at its adjourned meeting last night completed preparations for the city election a week from today by appointing election judges and clerks to serve in the several wards. The election officials are as follows:

Judges—First ward, R. Arribalza, E. S. Elwood and M. P. Swetstone. Second ward, A. G. Burtzer, A. Harrod and Charles Schmidt. Third ward, Martin Murphy, N. K. Stevens and J. J. Yutan. Fourth ward, M. Nash, J. O. Doane and L. Black.

Clerks—First ward, J. L. Person and J. E. Goodell. Second ward, H. Crawford and Lawrence Lee. Third ward, A. C. Culver and James McCaffrey. Fourth ward, C. F. Dunbar and W. H. Grinnan.

Governor William C. McDonald was in the city this morning between trains returning to Santa Fe from a brief visit to his ranch at Carrizozo. The governor had not heard of the dangerous illness of her father.

T. P. Hanson, Republican candidate for alderman for the Third ward, received a telegram last night from Boston informing him of the death of his father, who lives in Boston. Mr. Hanson is anxiously awaiting further advices today.

Owing to the departure from Albuquerque of Mrs. E. L. Bradford, second ward, and M. P. Swetstone, third ward, and Charles Schmidt, third ward, Martin Murphy, N. K. Stevens and J. J. Yutan, fourth ward, M. Nash, J. O. Doane and L. Black.

Clerks—First ward, J. L. Person and J. E. Goodell. Second ward, H. Crawford and Lawrence Lee. Third ward, A. C. Culver and James McCaffrey. Fourth ward, C. F. Dunbar and W. H. Grinnan.

E. A. Hall, six years head waiter at the Starkey's, has taken a lease of the Sulphur Hot Springs hotel and bath houses. Everything will be ready for guests on May 1st. He will conduct a general store where campers can purchase supplies as cheaply as in Albuquerque. He will also keep a stable of riding ponies.

Worth Knowing.

How many male and female ancestors were required to bring you into the world? First, it was necessary that you should have a father and mother. That makes two human beings. Each of them must have a father and mother. That makes four more human beings. Again, each of them must have had a father and mother, making eight more human beings. So on we go back to the time of Jesus Christ, fifty-six generations. The calculation thus resulting shows that 129,232,917,482,284,976 births must have taken place to bring you into this world—of who read these lines! All this since the birth of Christ—not since the beginning of time.

CITY TO RECEIVE
MORE LIGHT AT SAME COST

New Contract Accepted by Council also Provides for a Reduction in Rates to the Private Consumers.

TUNGSTON LAMPS IN PLACE OF THE ARCS

More lights for the city without any increase in cost and a saving for the private consumer of $3,000 a year also results from a new lighting contract accepted by the Albuquerque Gas Electric Light & Power company which the council accepted last night.

The contract was recommended by the special committee on lights, composed of Councilmen George C. Scheer, Councilman John Lee Clarke, City Engineer James N. Gladding and City Clerk Charles Koch. Their report follows:

"Your committee appointed for the purposes of investigating the proposed lighting contract, begs leave to report
as follows:

"We recommend that the council authorize the execution of the contract submitted herewith. This contract is based upon the moonlight schedule, changing, however, from tungsten arcs to 200-watt tungsten lights, thereby securing a reduction of $10 per year per light, without any loss of illumination, and protects the city in the event any new lighting system is discovered which will lower the cost of operating the same."

"In taking over the present ornamental lighting system, this committee recommend the enactment of an ordinance which will provide that before any extensions of ornamental lighting is made, that the property owners along the proposed new system will enter into a contract with the lighting company to pay for said system for a period of three years before asking the city to take it over."

"This committee finds that if this contract is entered into, the city will save the amount of $3,000 per year, after paying for
the new system, which the lighting company will give the consumers will save the latter approximately $3,000
per year."

"This committee further finds that if this contract is entered into, the city will save the amount of $3,000 per year, after paying for
the new system, which the lighting
company will give the consumers will
save the latter approximately $3,000
per year."

Sheriff Foreman of Polk county came here to Watson this morning. He arrived from El Paso at 7 o'clock, went to the courthouse as soon as he had had breakfast, arranged to get his prisoner and was on his way with Watson at 8:30 aboard the train for El Paso. He was prepared to go to Santa Fe with extradition papers in his pocket, but Watson inter-estedly waived extradition, and the Texas sheriff lost no time getting him started for the Lone Star state.

"Yes," said Watson when Foreman asked him if he was willing to take the trip without extradition, "I want to go back. Tell the truth, boss, I been figuring on going back my own self for some time, but I ain't ever got my nerve up to do it."

During Watson's amiable and even easier attitude toward the trip to Texas, sheriff Foreman wasn't taking any chances. There are so many escapes and attempts at escape in Watson's record that Foreman declined to give the negro any possibility of leaving him outside of a train wreck.

Then the sheriff put a pair of handcuffs on Watson. Then he put another pair of handcuffs on the prisoner, chained Watson fast to himself, and took his charge to the station. On the train the sheriff produced a set of leg irons and put them on Watson, and then he chained the negro to the seat. Having snapped the last link, Foreman surveyed Watson and grinned.

"There," he said, "I reckon I'll get you into El Paso, anyway."

"I expect so, boss," said Watson. "I couldn't run with this hardware on, even if you was to let me loose."

Foreman's precautions were justified by Watson's record. He escaped from a Texas officer on one occasion in spite of being off duty, and Sunday night he came within an ace of breaking out of the county jail at Old Albuquerque. He made a vicious attack on Deputy Sheriff Coulter, when the latter brought him supper in the "bull pen," and only the fact that Coulter is unusually powerful as well as courageous prevented Watson from smashing his way to freedom. The sheriff immediately with Coulter and deputy informed him into a state of submission. Following his attack on Coulter, the negro was locked in a solitary cell, and a special watch put over him.

The county authorities are glad to get him off their hands and Under-
